

ALCUIN SOCIETY'S 26TH ANNUAL BOOK DESIGN AWARDS

The Awards Ceremony for the winners of the Alcuin Society 2007 Awards for Excellence in Book Design in Canada will be held again this year at The Arts and Letters Club of Toronto. The awards will be presented by Martin Levin, Book Editor, The Globe & Mail. The keynote speaker will be CS Richardson.

Designer and author CS Richardson is Creative Director for Random House of Canada. Over a twenty-five year career, he has designed books for numerous notable authors, including Margaret Atwood, Michael Ondaatje, Wayson Choy, Ian McEwan, Julian Barnes, and John Irving. He is a multiple winner of the Alcuin Award and has received CBA Libris, Applied Arts, and Advertising & Design Club of Canada awards. Richardson is also an acclaimed novelist. His first book, The End of the Alphabet, is an international bestseller, and winner of the Commonwealth Writers Prize for Best First Book.

EVERYONE WELCOME

MONDAY OCTOBER 6

5:30 (BAR) FOR 6:30 (DINNER)

THE ARTS AND LETTERS CLUB

14 ELM STREET

CO-HOSTED BY THE ARTS AND LETTERS CLUB & THE ALCUIN SOCIETY

Reservations are required for the dinner ($20 per person). Contact Naomi, at The Arts and Letters Club -- (416) 597-0223 ext. 2.

The award-winning books (excepting the Limited Editions) will be on display. For a complete list of the books, and more information about The Alcuin Society and its book design competition, see:

<http://www.alcuinsociety.com/awards>

The Alcuin Society is a Vancouver based non-profit society for the support and appreciation of books. In addition to the annual Book Design Competition, the Society publishes a quarterly journal, Amphora, and organizes workshops, lectures, and exhibitions on various aspects of the book.