

THE ALCUIN SOCIETY
LIST OF PUBLICATIONS
MARCH 1, 2007

BOOKS

A Theatrical trip for a Wager! Horton Rhys, with introduction by Robertson Davies, & original pen and ink drawings by Sam Black. 1966. (Originally published 1861) The Society's first book. Numbered & signed by illustrator, printer, designer & binder in an edition of 500 in slipcases. Kennerley type with Lombardic Capitals for chapter initials; titles set in Verona & printed letterpress on deckle-edge Victorian Text. 282pp + colophon. Paper covered boards. Once copy. Price $50

The Travels, Tribulations and several Encounters of a English army officer and Amateur Thespian through the uncivilized lands of Canada and the United States. Captain Rhys wagered 500 pounds with some acquaintances in London that he could earn at least that above his expenses in one year on the stage. The book is the narrative of his fourteen-month journey through New York, the New England states and Eastern Canada.

The Substance of a Journal During a Residence at the Red River Colony, British North America in the Years 1820-1823. By John West, late Chaplain to the Hon. Hudson's Bay Company. 1967. (Originally published in 1824) Numbered and signed by printer, illustrator, designer & binder in 500 copies slip cased. Printed letterpress in black, red, blue & turquoise using Caslon Oldstyle type on deckle-edge Victorian Text paper. 204pp + colophon. One copy. Some sun fade. Price $75

The experiences of an Anglican minister who came to Canada in 1820 to do missionary work among the Indians and Esquimaux. It is the earliest connected narrative of the natives and the straggle of settlers at Red River.

Belinda, or the Rivals. A.S.H. (Abraham S. Holmes). 1970. (Originally published in 1843) With introduction by Prof. Carl F. Klinck. Sixteen period water colours of Chatham area from originals in the Public Archives of Canada. Numbered & signed by pressman, typesetter, designer & binder. 400 copies slip cased. Printed letterpress in Palatino on Strathmore Natural Art Parchment. Illustrations lithographed by four-colour process on Phototext. 154pp + colophon. 8 copies. Price $40

A tale of coquetry, set in Chatham, Ontario, of Miss Belinda Howard, her charms and her pursuers. Considered the first Canadian satirical novel, Belinda deals with Canadian life in the 1840's in Upper Canada.

The Diary and Narrative of Richard Henry Alexander in a Journey Across the Rocky Mountains. Richard Henry Alexander. 1973. Edited by Neal Brearley with pen & ink drawings by Frits Jacobsen. 500 numbered copies. Printed on deckle-edge Cortlea Text by the Graphic Arts Department of the Vancouver Vocational Institute. 32pp + colophon. One copy . Price $40

An original publication based on a diary kept by Alexander during a journey from Kingston, Ontario to New Westminster, BC from 23 April to 14 November 1862. Instead of the six weeks estimated for the trip by a group of young men, it took seven months and they nearly starved.

The Canadian Settler's Guide. Catherine Parr Traill. 1974 and 1975. (Originally published in 1853 – the Alcuin Society's edition is based on an 1855 edition) 450 numbered copies in two parts folded and gathered loose folio sheets, both housed in green cloth double slipcase. All these are sold. However, the Society has 37 sets of Part One & Part Two which are contained in paper envelopes. Ideal for binding. Part One – 67 + colophon. Part Two – 55 + colophon. Price $50 set

A pioneer writer and botanist, Mrs. Traill wrote the Guide, based on her personal experiences, to provide essential information to English emigrants for a successful adjustment to Canada.

In Praise of Scribes (De Laude Scriptorium). Johannes Trithemius. 1977. (Originally published in 1494) Translated by Elizabeth Bryson Bongie and edited with an introduction by Michael S. Batts. 485 numbered copies. Handset in Caslon by Cobblestone Press & printed by members of the Alcuin Society on Cortlea Cover. 62pp + colophon Price $60

John of Trittenheim, at the tender age of twenty-one, became abbot of the monastery of Sponheim in 1465 and began to build a library which reached 2000 volumes by 1505. During these years printing began to replace scribes. Trittenheim wrote his book as a gentle plea that the art of handwriting should not be neglected. His thoughts are as relevant in the computer age as they were 500 years ago.

Flowers in Heraldry. Painted, compiled, designed, written, illustrated & calligraphed by Vera Ibbett. 1977. Produced in Belgium on offset presses of Van Den Bossche & bound by M. A. P. Austraet. Paper is Chromomat supplied by Arjomari-Prioux, France. 2300 copies were published, each with identical pages but different bindings. The "A Specials" – 100; "B Specials" – 100; "Ordinaries" – 300, each signed and numbered quickly sold. Available are unnumbered copies, either paper bound or loose in envelopes. 30pp + colophon. Price $30 except Ordinaries - $125

Words cannot describe the beauty and quality of this work of art. Vera Ibbett worked 3 years to produce the book. A lavish and beautifully executed combination of the skills of botanical painting, calligraphy and fine book making, Flowers in Heraldry was Vera Ibbett's submission to the Society of Scribes and Illuminators and on which she was elected to the professional status of Craft Member.

In Praise of the Book, being a facsimile of important articles and pages about books taken from Amphora 1965 – 1990. Edited by Barbara Hemphill and Jean MacDonald, designed by Gwen Murray with Don Atkins as printer and guiding spirit. 1992. Printed in two colours on acid free Teton Text with a wrap around cover on indigo Teton Cover. 200 copies. Perfect bound. 100pp. Price $30

Silver anthology of articles and illustrations chosen from issues of Amphora. A treasury of interesting, humourous, scholarly, informative, opinionated articles on books and those who make them, buy them, love them and treasure them.

The Alcuin Society: A Compilation of its Publications from 1965 to 1998. Compiled by Jim Rainer. 1999. Text type is Minion and display type is Alcuin, designed for the Alcuin Society by Gudrun Zapf von Hesse. Paper is Fusion Cream printed & bound by Benwell-Atkins Ltd. Cover was typeset and printed letterpress by Stuart Isto. 300 unnumbered copies. 14 copies. 84pp + colophon. Price $20

A compilation of publications produced by the Alcuin Society from its founding in 1965 to November 1998, including books, chapbooks and pamphlets, keepsakes and broadsides, ephemera and Amphora, the Society's journal.

Dorothy Burnett, Bookbinder. Text by Norman Amor. Designed & produced by Robert R. Reid. 2007. This book is the first in a series on the Book Arts. The edition is limited because interest in the subject is limited, but such strictures have allowed the Alcuin Society to lavish great care and attention on the preparation & production of the book, so that it is, in itself, a fine example of the book arts. Set in Fairfield Roman & Italic type. Printed on a laser colour printer on Classic Crest book paper & bound by Centennial Bookbindery, Vancouver. Marbled papered slip case. 80pp. 8 ½" x 11". Prospectus on request. Price $185 to Alcuin Society members and $225 to non members.

This volume is devoted to the work of Dorothy Burnett, English Canada's first fine Bookbinder in the modern genre of binding books to suit the individual book, rather Than imposing traditional, decorative patterns, heavily tooled, into the book. Most of Her work was done in the 1930's & 1940's.
